THE HEAVENLY BANQUET

The mountain of the Lord described in today's first reading is a place where there is no more hunger, no more weeping, and no more division of any kind. We need to pause and ponder these images every now and then, especially given the fact that we live in such a fractured world. The responsorial psalm continues to paint a picture of a place where only goodness and kindness flourish. These readings describe the heavenly banquet, to which God calls each of us through baptism and continues to call us throughout our lives. Let us "RSVP" to God's invitation and live our lives consistent with gospel values so that one day we will be welcomed to the table of the kingdom.

“My God will supply whatever you need...” - PHILIPPIANS 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Today's Gospel speaks about “unworthy wedding guests.” What makes a “worthy” guest? Presence and presents are not enough. The greatest gift we can give is support to the couple as they voyage through life together because marriage naturally contains within it the fields of disappointment. Think of the weddings you have attended. Have you been a “worthy guest?”

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED

It's time! It's time for us to update our photo directory. We know you are all busy. For now, we just need you to save the date. We will be photographing all church members on November 24th and 25th and December 13th thru 16th right here at St. Anthony Church. Our directory won't be complete without you. Watch our bulletin for more information in the coming weeks. Photo sessions will be scheduled after all masses on the weekends of October 28, November 4, and November 11, 2017. Volunteers are needed to help on these dates. Please call Nancy Deters (304-527-4603) or Chris Manack-Stover (919-210-7538) if you would like to help with the sign ups or on picture days. Thank you in advance for assisting with this very important project. We look forward to hearing from you!

ATTENTION LECTORS, EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS, AND SERVERS

First note of interest is a friendly reminder that if you are unable to keep your scheduled minister commitment, it is your responsibility to find a replacement. Please do not assume there will be someone at Mass to fill in for you. When you find your own replacement, it allows our priest to focus on the Mass and he does not have to worry about finding your replacement at the last minute. Secondly, we will begin preparing the minister schedule for the next six months (January 2018 through June 2018). If you need to make changes to the schedule, are unable to fulfill your assigned duties or simply wish to be removed from the schedule, please contact the office to make the adjustment or to have your name removed. In addition, if any parishioner is interested in participating in one of these ministries, please notify the office as soon as possible. We will be conducting training in all the above mentioned ministries during the last week of October. This is a great opportunity to volunteer your time and talent. Please watch the bulletin for upcoming scheduled training dates. Thank you for your continued support to St. Anthony Church.
