Requested by Marie Chiodo

Why do we bow whenever we pass the altar?

We bow because the altar represents Christ. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "the altar, around which the Church is gathered in the celebration of the Eucharist, represents the two aspects of the same mystery: the altar of the sacrifice and the table of the Lord. This is all the more so since the Christian altar is the symbol of Christ himself, present in the midst of the assembly of his faithful, both as the victim offered for our reconciliation and as food from heaven who is giving himself to us." (CCC 1383)

The altar is both the place of Christ's sacrifice, and the altar is the table of the Lord, where Jesus gives himself to us as the Bread of Life. And so we bow before the altar as we bow before Jesus.

The altar in the church is also connected to the altar in heaven. The priest prays, "we entreat you, almighty God, that by the hands of your holy Angel this offering may be borne to your altar in heaven in the sight of your diving majesty." We bow as we remember that the altar connects us to the heavenly temple, and Wednesday Eucharistic Adoration— O Come let us adore Him! Jesus said to the apostles in the garden on the night before He died for us, “Could you not watch one hour with Me.” (Mt 26:40) . He is now asking each of us to open our hearts and come spend 1 hour with Him in Eucharistic Adoration every Wednesday here at St Anthony’s between 8am and 2pm.
